Selected Discussions
Round Table Discussion	Expanding NCC Boundaries / Recruiting New Members Jeff, Rick, Alice, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Small group met, proposed expansion area, this is an opportunity to allow new residence For the Development Committee, and time restraints, adding an area this size, does add a potential higher workload, Only the portion that are annexed into the City of Columbus are areas of interest. • Expanding the boarder will allow residence the opportunity to have a speaking body prior to just being sent to City Council. • Buy in from the city, they take no issue with NCC expanding the border area. • Annexation is being done parcel by parcel, so there is not defined area at this point. This proposal situates the NCC for 15-20 years into the future as the city grows. • Membership organizations will still need be in place to join NCC. • Any Columbus resident will get a notification of a project or not. Having a larger voice gives new residence a voice. • As the city is in the process of rezoning, phase three will have land use guidance policy. What is the city looking at for rezoning, they are in the process of developing as needed. • North of Central College and East of Hover Dam, the Northland by Laws do need to be re- written to expanded to include a larger boulder area. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New Civic Associations would like to join that are in the current boundaries • Create a By Law Change that would be brought back in June to expand the boundaries. Alice, Jeff, Rick to create an Outline of a Proposal to Expand Northland Boundaries • Create a way to promote growth opportunities. • Ken Gilber Moves to accept the plan as outline as drawn, Jeff second, Motion carries. • This conversation will continue forward.
